TERMS & CONDITIONS

The terms and conditions that follow cover The Global Cement Report™, 14th Edition and the accompanying statistical database and plant database, published by Tradeship Publications Ltd, Dorking, UK.

Individual user licence and database expiry

Each subscriber to The Global Cement Report™, 14th Edition will receive:

- i) a hard copy of the report
- ii) access to the accompanying statistical database via www.CemNet.com and;
- iii) access to the cement plant database via www.CemNet.com.

Access to the database will expire upon the publication of the subsequent edition of The Global Cement Report™, or by June 2023, whichever is the earlier. After this time it will be necessary to purchase a new subscription to access the databases.

Multi-user licences

Companies or groups wishing to use The Global Cement Report™, 14th Edition and associated databases across more than one office location or subscribe more than one user, will require a multi-user license. Multi-user licences are available on request: please write to subscribe@cemnet.com for more information and pricing. The individual subscription/licence is not transferable.

Referencing or reproduction of content

You may reproduce insubstantial amounts of the information from The Global Cement Report™, 14th Edition in your own work and distribute such work to the public free of charge only, provided that:

- Such reproduction is on an occasional basis;
- Any reproduction of numerical data from The Global Cement Report™ is presented either in graphical format, or aggregated, in both cases in such a manner that the reader cannot reverse engineer or extract the raw underlying numerical data
- Excerpts of non-data information from The Global Cement Report™, including text, graphs and/or figures are reproduced in their entirety without any modification of the excerpt's content, and
- In all cases the source is clearly referenced as follows: Source: The Global Cement Report™, 14th Edition, Tradeship Publications Ltd

Limitations of use

Systematic storage and distribution of The Global Cement Report™, 14th Edition, and/or its associated statistical and plant databases is prohibited under the terms of this licence.

If you need further guidance with regards to these Terms & Conditions, please supply a draft of the proposed items you wish to publish and write to subscribe@cemnet.com with your request.

Additional copies of the report
